TASTES OF TWO REGIONS

RUTHERGLEN

ONE OF AUSTRALIA'S MOST CELEBRATED WINE REGIONS

A unique climate, commitment, and innovation have coalesced in Rutherglen to create incredibly complex, unparalleled, world-class wines. Rutherglen's wine making culture is defined by strong heritage, a sense of history and purpose, and a dose of good old-fashioned hospitality. Many of Rutherglen's great winemaking businesses began in the gold rush era of the mid-19th century, some of which are still family owned enterprises managed by fourth, fifth and sixth generation descendants. With this much history, Rutherglen is a truly unique Australian winemaking region, where multiple generations of the same hard-working families have left their stamp on our country's winemaking history. Famous for their distinctive fortified wines, our winemakers are also pushing the envelope in the development of award-winning table wines, making Rutherglen one of Australia's ultimate epicurean destinations.

THE KING VALLEY

AUSTRALIA'S EPICENTRE OF ITALIAN VARIETIES

The King Valley is one of the country's most exciting and beautiful wine regions. The region extends from valley floor in the north through to undulating Alpine foothills in the south, with steep, well timbered hillsides. At its northern edge is the long established Milawa, while at the southern tip is Whitfield and, beyond that, the Whitlands plateau, at 800 metres, one of the highest and coolest grape-growing areas in Australia.

The reputation of the region owes much to the hard working Italian families who started out as tobacco farmers but switched to viticulture with crucial encouragement from Brown Brothers when the tobacco leaf market dwindled away in the early 1970s. The fusion of Italian winemakers, Italian grape varieties, plus a favourable climate and rich soils, has proved to be an ideal combination for crafting premium cool climate wines. Wines such as Prosecco, Pinot Grigio and Sangiovese have vaulted the region to the forefront of popularity and acclaim as Australia's epicentre of Italian varieties.
