

HISTORIC BERRIMA

Love History – step back in time.....

Historic Berrima village (1831) is recognised as one of Australia's best preserved towns of yesteryear with its picturesque sandstone Georgian architecture. The Surveyor General Inn is the oldest continuously licenced pub in Australia.

The Berrima Courthouse (1839) has a spectacular 'sound & light' show depicting the most infamous trial of the 1840's. It is believed to be haunted by ghosts.

Berrima hosted interned German Naval Officers and merchant seaman in the Gaol and Courthouse in World War I. Take the scenic river walk and learn of their camp dwellings and lifestyle. A visit to Berrima Museum and Harpers Mansion with its maze will take you back in time.

DID YOU KNOW – Berrima Courthouse (1839) is the site of the first trial by jury court case in the Colony of New South Wales.
