THREE DAUGHTERS RESERVE PINOT NOIR 2012 RECEIVES INTERNATIONAL RECOGNITION

Local boutique winery Sutton Forest Estate Wines gets recognition at the world's most respected blind tasted wine competition, the International Wine Challenge Awards in London for their "Three Daughters Reserve" Pinot Noir 2012.

The owners Nick and Santina Lo Russo of 21 Black Horse Lane Sutton Forest are thrilled about this "Commended Award" in the 2015 awards. Nick stated that "we have been producing award winning wines over the last 14 years and have been awarded several medals for our Chardonnay and Pinot Noir, but this was the first time we entered one of our wines in the International Wine Challenge, so to receive this medal of commendation from one of the world's most influential and respected wine competitions was a great honour and something we are very proud of."

This award winning wine, and others including Chardonnay, the Classic Forest Red & White and Botrytis are available from Sutton Forest Estate Wines - open for wine tasting Fri-Sun from 10am-5pm.
